

BRAIN ART EXHIBITION

An Exhibition at the 2025 Eleventh Annual BHI Symposium to Celebrate the Artist in the Researcher

At the 2025 Eleventh Annual Rutgers Brain Health Institute (BHI) Symposium on December 3, we will hold a Brain Art exhibition. We invite Rutgers trainees to submit artwork related to neuroscience, brain, or mental health research. Whether it is a research image captured in the lab, or a de novo creation inspired by neuroscience, let your creativity shine!

HOW TO SUBMIT YOUR PHOTOGRAPHS OR ORIGINAL ARTWORK:

- Upload a high-definition image of your artwork to OneDrive (accessible via myRutgers portal)
- The image should be uploaded into a newly created folder with your name
- Share this folder with kuzhikev@bhi.rutgers.edu
- Include a caption for your artwork
- Submit by November 1
- Register for the symposium HERE

RECOGNITION:

We will select up to 20 pieces to display during the two-day symposium. Based on the number and quality of submissions, we may select three winners for prizes:

1st place: $200, 2nd place: $150, 3rd place: $100
